

I wish to go on record opposing the changing of rules limiting media ownership. We need the variety of viewpoints provided by independent media. We already see too much similarity in newcasts of major networks. Protect our right to information retaining current limits.